Correct Citations Come in Pairs: Parenthetical References added to the text of the work, which leads the reader/editor/professor to the Full Citation of each item quoted, paraphrased or referenced in the students work on the work cited pages.

Parenthetical Reference

Parenthetical Reference = (AUTHORS LAST NAME, YEAR).

Examples, (Columbus, 1492); (Jones, 1776); or (Reid-Smyth, 1993).

In the text:

This shows the authors’ understanding of Columbus’ (1492) research on the subject.

(If the authors name is used in the text, in a sentence.)

Or

Others feel that the subject should handle with care (Jones, 1776).

Full Citation

Full citations are double spaced and listed in alphabetical order on the last pages of the report/paper. These citations lead the reader/editor/professor to the correct journal/magazine, volume, issue, date and page to check the information, or simply to read the full article to which the student referenced. Correct citations allows the reader/editor/professor to trace back the authors steps in the research process. [Section, Page #]
