REBECCA DAVIS CARSON

Work experience

CHIEF, FORCE DEVELOPMENT FLIGHT

July 2007-Present United States Air Force Dyess AFB TX

- Direct Airman Leadership School, First Term Airman's Center, Base Education and Training Center, and the Base Library. Flight's mission is to meet professional education and training needs of the base personnel including active duty, civilian employees, and family members.

EDUCATION SERVICES OFFICER

September 1982-July 2007 United States Air Force Dyess AFB TX

- Directed Base Training and Education Services (BTES) programs including career development training and remedial through graduate level education programs—serving over 5,000 military and civilian personnel

ADJUNCT INSTRUCTOR

Barstow Community College Barstow CA

Texas State Technical College Abilene TX

Cisco Junior College Abilene TX

Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University Dyess AFB TX

- Taught introductory level psychology courses

GUIDANCE COUNSELOR

January 1977-January 1986 United States Air Force Goodfellow AFB TX

- Counseled students on educational opportunities to meet professional and career goals

VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION COUNSELOR

November 1979-June 1981 Portland OR

- Counseled clients and coordinated rehabilitation services for return to work

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY SPECIALIST

January 1979-November 1979 Office for Civil Rights Dallas TX

- Investigated EEO complaints and conducted compliance reviews

Education

Doctorate of Education—Higher Education December 1999
Texas Tech University Lubbock TX

Master of Education—Higher Education December 1996
Texas Tech University Lubbock TX

Master of Science—Counseling Psychology December 1989
Angelo State University San Angelo TX

Master of Education—Vocational Rehabilitation Counseling December 1975
Bachelor of Arts with Honors—French January 1974
University of Texas at Austin Austin TX

Community Service

Prayer Chaplain —Unity of Abilene, 2005-Present

Supporter—Rescue the Animals, 2000-Present