

WILLIAM E. HAGOOD

Instructor
Cisco College

Education

M. A. in History	December 2005 Tarleton State University
B. A. in History, English minor	May 2003 Tarleton State University

Teaching Experience

Instructor	September 2006 – present
Adjunct	Cisco College
Taught U.S. History I and II; sections included high school dual-credit, ITV Hybrid and traditional classrooms. Spring 2008, I planned and organized a fieldtrip to Howard Payne University to attend a presentation on social deviance in the 60s.

Insturctor	September 2008 – December 2008
Supplemental instructor	Abilene Christian University
Taught Hist 222- American History II

Graduate Assistant	Aug. 2004-June 2005 Tarleton State University
Upward Bound program for lower socio-economic high school students Taught Culinary Arts as an elective course Taught Life Skills and Study Skills to students to prepare them for college

Honors and Awards

Who's Who in America	2010 Edition Cisco College
----------------------	-------------------------------

Professional Presentations

“Cherokees in Early Texas.” Cultural Awareness Week, Howard Payne University,
Brownwood, TX, Feb. 2006