

Beth Jackson

Mathematics Professor
Cisco College

Education

Degree: Master of Science
Major: Mathematics

Date Received: May 2005
Name of University: Tarleton State University

Degree: Bachelor of Science
Major: Psychology

Date Received: December 1993
Name of University: Texas State University

Teaching Experience

Title: Mathematics Professor

Dates Held: September 2005-present
Name of College: Cisco College

Courses Taught: Pre-Calculus, College Algebra, Elementary Statistics, Fundamentals of Mathematics I, Fundamentals of Mathematics II, Intermediate Algebra, Elementary Algebra, Basic Mathematics

College Service: Committee Memberships during employment include: Admissions and Registration Committee, Curriculum Committee, Hearing Committee, and QEP Planning Team. I participate in CSI: CJC, a career awareness project for eighth grade students at a local high school. Moreover, I serve as a student advisor during Fall and Spring registration.

Title: Teaching Assistant

Dates Held: September 2002-May 2004
Name of College: Tarleton State University

Courses Taught: Intermediate Algebra, Elementary Algebra

Relevant Experience

Title: High School Math Teacher

Dates Held: September 2004-May 2005
Name of School: Hico High School

Beth Jackson

Mathematics Professor

Cisco College

Professional Development

Student Advisor Training provided by Cisco College: August 2005

“Standards for the New Student” seminar provided by STARLINK: Spring 2006

Developed a new course, Pre-Calculus, Math 2412, to increase course offerings at Cisco College:
Spring 2007

Distance Learning Seminar provided by Cisco College: Spring 2007

“Game Plan for Success” provided by STARLINK: Spring 2008

Professional Memberships

Texas Mathematical Association of Two-Year Colleges (TexMATYC)

Texas Community College Teachers Association (TCCTA).

Community Service

Lead a Divorce Recovery Group for Women

Parent Volunteer at local Elementary School