

James “Rick” Marks

Division Chair Industrial Technology
Cisco College

Education

Bachelor of Science 1999
Secondary Education McMurry University

Teaching Experience

Division Chair Industrial Technology 2006 – present
Full Time Instruction Cisco College

Courses Taught: Basic Refrigeration (HART 1407);
Commercial Air-Conditioning (HART 2441);
Residential Air-Conditioning (HART 1441);
Basic Electricity (CETT 1402);
Motor Controls (IEIR 1410);
Basic Computer Aided Drafting (DFTG 1409);
Cooperative Education – Business Administration & Management
(BMGT 1482, 1483, &2482);
Programmable logic Controls(ELPT 2419)

College Service: Division Chair – industrial Technology;
Curriculum Committee Member (beginning 3rd term);
Safety Committee Member (beginning 2nd term);
Academic Transfers/Technical Programs & Procedures
SACS Sub -Committee Member;
TLC Member;

Instructor August 1998 – 2006
Part Time Instruction Cisco College

Courses Taught: Basic Refrigeration (HART 1407);
Commercial Air-Conditioning (HART 2441);
Motor Controls (IEIR 1410);

Pre-AP Science Instructor January 2000 – May 2006
Clack Middle School
Abilene Independent Schools

James “Rick” Marks

Division Chair Industrial Technology
Cisco College

Honors and Awards

Kappa Delta Phi

May 1999

McMurry University

MSSC (Manufacturing Skills Standards Certified instructor)

December 2008

Professional Development

TACL-BE License holder

EPA certified - Universal – Section 608 Refrigerant recovery, recycling, and reclamation

Certified R – 410 A Technician

Certified ESCO institute Refrigerant recovery proctor

Certified Scottsman/Manitowoc technician

Certified Hoshisoki Ice machine technician

Certified Trane Tracer - HVAC energy management

Certified Lennox commercial HVAC troubleshooting

Certified in commercial/residential HVAC system Design

Certified PLC programmer

*other professional development activities cited upon request