

Stephanie Sartor

Education/Certification:

Master of Science—Mathematics, Hardin-Simmons University, Abilene, TX, 2016.

Bachelor of Behavioral Science—Mathematics, Hardin-Simmons University, Abilene, TX, 2006.

Teacher Certificate—Mathematics (Grades 8-12), TEA#1348948.

Teaching Experience:

Dual Credit/Adjunct Instructor—Cisco College, Abilene, TX, 2017-present.

- Develop lessons for College Algebra dual credit.
- Future prospect for teaching other classes.

Secondary Mathematics Teacher—Merkel High School, Merkel, TX, 2010-present.

- Develop and implement grade level, Advanced Placement, and Dual Credit instruction.
- Coach UIL Math events.

Secondary Mathematics Teacher—Stamford High School, Stamford, TX, 2007-2010.

- Develop and implement grade level along with Advanced Placement instruction.
- Coach UIL Math events.

Substitute Teacher—Abilene Independent School District, Abilene, TX, 2006-2007.

- Implement instructions from regular teacher.

Professional Experience:

Cashier—Target Corporation, Abilene, TX, 2002-2007.

- Guest Service, Food Service, and Front End Cashier

Professional Development:

Conference for Advancement of Mathematics Teachers, San Antonio, TX, 2016.

What is Underachievement in Gifted Students and Can It Be Reversed?, ESC14, Abilene, TX, 2016.

Connecting Arithmetic to Algebra, John Lally, Abilene, TX, 2015.

Big Country Math and Science Symposium, ESC14, Abilene, TX, 2015.

Conference for Advancement of Mathematics Teachers, San Antonio, TX, 2013.

Building Powerful Numeracy, Pam Harris, Abilene, TX, 2012.

Laying the Foundation Math: Geometry and Pre-Calculus, Abilene, TX, 2012.

Advanced Placement Summer Institute for Calculus, Joe Milliet, Ft. Worth, TX, 2011.