

Curriculum Vitae

Curtis W. Tate
Adjunct Instructor

Cisco College, Abilene, Texas

Education

Master of Arts
History

August 1991
Hardin-Simmons University, Abilene, Texas

Bachelor of Arts
History

May 1984
Abilene Christian University, Abilene Texas

Teaching Experience

Adjunct Instructor
Teaching U.S. History Survey Courses

January 1997-Present
Cisco College, Abilene Campus

Adjunct Instructor
Teaching U.S. History Survey Courses

August-December 2008
Abilene Christian University

Visiting Assistant Professor
Teaching U.S. History Survey Courses

August 2000-May 2001
Hardin-Simmons University

Adjunct Instructor
Teaching U.S. History Survey, Western Civilization

January-May 1998
Abilene Christian University

Temporary Full-Time Instructor
Teaching U.S. History Survey Courses

August 1996-December 1996
Hardin-Simmons University

Adjunct Instructor
Teaching U.S. History/U.S. Government

January 1997-December 1998
August 1994-May 1996; January-May 1993
Hardin-Simmons University

Adjunct Instructor
Teaching U.S. History Survey Courses

January 1992-August 1997
McMurry University, Abilene, Texas

Graduate Research Assistant
Richardson Research Center and Abilene Photograph Collection

August 1989-August 1991
Hardin-Simmons University

Professional Development

Intern Assistant to Curator/Weekend Supervisor
Artifact Collection, Cataloguing, Authored Historical Exhibit

May-November 1991
Grace Museum, Abilene, Texas

Professional Presentations and Publications

Master's Thesis: "Abilene's Golden Era – The Emergence of a West Texas City during the 1920s" Hardin-Simmons University, August 1991

Phi Alpha Theta Regional Conference in Stephenville, Texas, April 1991, presented paper: "U.S.-Mexican Relations in 1920 as seen in Editorials from the Abilene Daily Reporter."

Review of From the Pecos to the Powder by Ramon Adams for the West Texas Historical Association Yearbook, 1990.

Southwestern Social Science Association National Convention in Fort Worth, Texas, April 1990, presented paper: "Art, Propaganda and History: An Examination of Eisenstein's Potemkin."

Phi Alpha Theta Regional Convention in Arlington, Texas, April 1990, presented paper: "The Origins of the Secession Movement and the Deliberations of the Secession Convention in Texas 1860-1861."

Alpha Chi National Convention in San Antonio, Texas, April 1983, and State Convention in San Angelo, Texas, April 1984, presented paper: "W. Lee O'Daniel and the Texas Gubernatorial Election of 1938."