You must provide one of the following documents that indicates the student's high school completion status when the student will begin college in 2017-2018.

Check the box that applies:

- A copy of the student's high school diploma is attached.
- A copy of the student's final official high school transcript that shows the date when the diploma was awarded is attached.
- A copy of the student's General Educational Development (GED) certificate or GED transcript is attached.
- An academic transcript that indicates the student successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor's degree.
- If State law requires a homeschooled student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a copy of that credential.
- If State law does not require a homeschooled student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a transcript or the equivalent, signed by the student's parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school courses the student completed and documents that successfully show completion of a secondary education in a homeschool setting.
