How to Create a FSA ID

The FSA ID has replaced the Federal Student Aid PIN and must be used to log into certain US Department of Education websites. Your FSA ID confirms your identity when you access your financial aid information and electronically sign Federal Student Aid documents. If you do not already have an FSA ID, you can create one when logging into fafsa.gov, the National Student Loan Data System at www.nslds.ed.gov, studentloans.gov, studentaid.gov, and Agreement to Serve (ATS) at www.teach-ats.ed.gov.

1. When logging into one of the websites listed above, click the link to create a FSA ID.
2. Create a username and password, and enter your email address.
3. Enter your name, date of birth, Social Security number, contact information, and challenge questions and answers.
4. If you have a Federal Student Aid PIN, you will be able to enter it and link it to your FSA ID. You can still create an FSA ID if you have forgotten or do not have a PIN.
5. Review your information, and read and accept the terms and conditions.

6. Confirm your email address using the secure code, which will be sent to the email address you entered when you created your FSA ID. Once you verify your email address, you can use it instead of your username to log into the website.

Cisco Student Gmail Account

This is your personal Gmail account that you need to check often. Important college information is sent to this account. It is automatically created for each student; all you have to do to activate it is log-in with the following information.

Go to www.gmail.com and login by entering the following information:

firstname.lastname+lastfour#ofyourstudentid@students.cisco.edu

The password is your full student ID number.

Example: jane.doe1234@students.cisco.edu

If you can't access your Gmail account, or if you have any troubles with your account, please contact helpdesk@students.cisco.edu.

How to Access Canvas for your online courses

Canvas is the Learning Management System (LMS) that Cisco College uses for online learning. Within Canvas, instructors provide students access to course content. Canvas also enables students to interact with instructors and peers, submit assignments and receive feedback, and access library services. Some face-to-face courses may also use Canvas as a supplementary resource.

Go to www.cisco.edu and click on the Canvas link at the top of the page.

Campus Connect ▾ Canvas Cisco Email

This will take you to a Canvas overview page. Once there, click on "Access & Password Reset." This will tell you what your username and password is to access your Canvas account.

Once you have your username and password, return to the Canvas overview page and click "Cisco College Canvas Login." You should be redirected to the Canvas homepage. Once there, enter your Cisco College Student Gmail (ex: jane.doe1234@students.cisco.edu) as the username and your entire student ID as the password.

If you can't access your account, please contact the Canvas Help Desk at canvashelp@cisco.edu

IMPORTANT:

You MUST access Canvas through <https://ciscocollege.instructure.com>. If you Google or search for it instead, it will take you to the wrong site and your log-in information will not work!

You will be able to access Canvas prior to the first day of class, but your class information will not be uploaded onto your account until that date. This means you probably will not be able to access your online course until the first day of class. If classes haven't shown up by the end of the first class day, please email canvashelp@cisco.edu with your information (including your student ID) and they will make sure your classes are loaded in a timely manner.

If you have any questions regarding Canvas, or are having trouble accessing Canvas, please click the Canvas button on the Cisco College homepage, and then click "Access & Password Reset" to see "Student Login Troubleshooting and Tips."

For more information regarding Canvas, please click the Canvas button the Cisco College homepage and then click "Help for Students" for Canvas FAQs and additional assistance.

Title IX and Non-Discrimination

Members of the Cisco College community, guests and visitors have the right to be free from discrimination and sexual harassment, including sexual violence. All members of the campus community are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that does not infringe upon the rights of others. The College believes in a zero tolerance policy for gender-based misconduct. When an allegation of misconduct is brought to an appropriate administration's attention, and a respondent is found to have violated this policy, serious sanctions will be used to reasonably ensure that such actions are never repeated.

Federal and state anti-discrimination laws ensure quality in education and provide for the following:

- Students have the right to equal learning opportunities in their schools.
- Students may not be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to harassment or other forms of discrimination on the basis of sex, sexual orientation, or gender identity in any program or activity.
- Students may not be required to take and/or may not be denied enrollment in a course because of their sex, sexual orientation, or gender identity.
- Students have the right to be evaluated and graded without regard to their sex, sexual orientation, or gender identity.

Cisco College takes allegations of sexual harassment seriously and investigates all reports

Sexual harassment is unwelcome sexual conduct by other students or school employees that interferes with a student's right to get an education or to participate in school activities. Sexual harassment may be same-sex or opposite-sex. In addition, sexual harassment includes hostile or demeaning conduct targeting someone's sex that is sufficiently severe, persistent and pervasive so that it unreasonably interferes with, limits or denies someone the ability to participate in or benefit from the college's educational program.

Title IX and Non-Discrimination, cont'd

Some examples of conduct that, if unwelcome, could constitute sexual harassment:

- Blocking someone's movement, standing too close, or stalking someone.
- Unwanted hugging, kissing, touching, grabbing, or pinching.
- Spreading rumors or rating others.
- Making sexually suggestive sounds, whistles, or noises.
- Using insults, threats, slurs, or sexual jokes that target someone's sex, sexual orientation or gender identity.
- Displaying pictures, posters, cartoons, drawings, or computer-generated images of a sexual nature.
- Writing notes, letters, or graffiti that are sexually explicit.
- Making obscene gestures or suggestive body movements that are sexual in nature.
